A RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE 2008 NBC-LEO SUMMER CONFERENCE AND BOARD OF DIRECTOR'S MEETING BEING HOSTED BY THE CITY OF

- Whereas, the National League of Cities is one of the nation's top advocacy organizations headquartered Washington, D.C. with a membership of over 1,800 cities, towns and villages with over 18,000 municipal leaders affiliated with NLC; and
- Whereas, the National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials (NBC-LEO), created in 1970, is a constituency group of NLC and vital voice as the largest group of elected African American officials in the world (representing nearly 2,000 individuals), is an active membership caucus consisting of African American mayors, council presidents and council members in cities and towns across the country; and
- Whereas, NBC-LEO's objectives include increasing African American participation on the NLC's steering and policy committees to ensure that policy and program recommendations reflect African American concerns and benefit their communities; and
- Whereas, the organization also works independently with its members to inform them on issues affecting the African American community and helps to devise ways to achieve their community objectives through legislation and direct action; and
- Whereas, each year NBC-LEO conducts an annual summer conference and board of director's meeting designed to help local leaders develop their governance and leadership skills in the national legislative arena with a particular focus on the interests of the African American community; and
- Whereas, the members of NLC and NBC-LEO take this opportunity to participate in a productive conference and engage in many educational, training and networking opportunities with our colleagues and share fellowship with local government officials, civic representatives and industry leaders; and
- Whereas, Atlanta is a diverse, well-educated city that is home to world-class attractions, an array of vibrant and livable neighborhoods, and a thriving business community wherein in the past year alone, has witnessed the debut of the nationally acclaimed Georgia Aquarium, the ground-breaking Atlantic Station development, a major expansion of the High Museum of Art, a fifth runway added at Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport, and the opening of the Centennial Olympic Games Exhibit at the Atlanta History Center; and
- Whereas, no matter where your interests lie, there is something new and exciting because "every day is an opening day in Atlanta."

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Atlanta City Council supports the 2008 NBC-LEO Summer Conference and Board of Directors Meeting to be hosted by the City of Atlanta.
